A photograph of a dark brown ceramic mug and a matching bowl against a textured, light-colored wall. The wall has a rough, aged appearance with visible cracks and discoloration. The mug is positioned behind the bowl, and a portion of a dark plate is visible on the right side of the frame. The lighting is soft, highlighting the smooth, slightly reflective surface of the ceramic pieces.

Ash

A deep chocolate brown reactive glaze gives the Ash series its intriguing, subtly textured surface. Characterized by robust round shapes and a light rim, this rustic collection adds instant warmth to your table setting.
